Coleman Board of Trade Not To Sponsor Rodeo

The Coleman Board of Trade met this week when it went on record as unanimously endorsing the proposed installation of a sewage system to serve the town of Coleman. Following a discussion a committee was formed comprising J. Ostash, J. Colwell, Dr. E. Aiello, A. Montalbetti and Mrs. B. Crippen, who will publicize the advantage such a system would provide.

The matter of the annual Coleman Rodeo was brought up, and after a lengthy discussion it was decided that the Board of Trade would not sponsor the 1961 Rodeo this year, thus leaving it open for any other group or organization to take over the affair.

Coal mining in the Pass was also discussed and the Board agreed to send a letter to Lawrence E. Kindt, MP, supporting the granting of a subsidy in aid of the coal industry which matter is to be brought up in parliament in the near future.

Guest speaker for the evening was George Meredith, a newcomer to Coleman, who spoke on the beauty of the Pass and the many possible resources that are in this district that should be developed.

He mentioned that in his many travels he had visited many resort towns but many lacked the potential that is in evidence in the Crows Nest Pass.

He mentioned fishing, hunting, hiking, excellent scenery and the many lakes in the area that could be developed as attractions for a greater tourist business. He mentioned the point that he felt that it was wrong for the residents to allow the coal mines in the area to be the seemingly only industry able to sustain the district and added that as a result other industry was not being pushed. He concluded by urging all to get out and push the Crows Nest Pass district.

It was mentioned at the meeting that open house is to be held by the Canadian Bechtel Company and also by the Canadian Trailer Co. who are handling the catering for the Sulphur Plant personnel at Sentinel. Open house for adults will be on Sunday, July 23rd from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., when visitors will have the opportunity of visiting the camp.

Hazen Argue Addresses New Party Meeting

Addressing over 60 persons in Blairmore on Thursday night June 22, Hazen Argue, federal C.C.F. leader in the House of Commons, stressed the need for the formation of a National Development Fund to be made up of Canadian Investors to buy out foreign investments in Canada.

Mr. Argue emphatically stated that with the large percentage of Canadian industry being owned by outsiders or foreign interest, mostly American, such a fund was necessary to regain Canada for Canadians.

Mr. Argue, who favored public ownership, mentioned the TCA as an example and also the publicly-owned Polymer Corporation that had realized a profit of $10,000,000 for the Canadian people during the last year.

He strongly stressed his opinion that, Canada instead of expending terrific sums of money on weapons that become obsolete overnight, should spend this money in the purchase of food and other goods to assist under-developed countries thereby reducing our surpluses and assist in putting many Canadian people in steady employment.

Discussing the platform of the New Party, Hazen Argue said that free speech was the foundation rock of the New Party's program. National security that would include a pre-paid medical care program and a portable pension plan were also included in the party's platform.

Mr. Argue said that the New Party believed in the right of every person to have a job and pointed out that such jobs could be created in the construction of new schools, new hospitals, modern housing programs, construction of new roads and highways and the manufacture of cars and other commodities.

Also present at the meeting was Grant Noltey, provincial organizer who informed the meeting there were 42 New Party Clubs in the province and that more were in the process of being organized. He strongly urged that the local New Party Club sponsor a delegate to attend the founding convention in Ottawa, and to the provincial convention to be held in Edmonton in October.

Albert Mark, president of the newly formed Crows Nest Pass New Party Club, who sponsored the meeting, acted as chairman for the evening.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

Wanted—More Employers

Unemployment continues to be the number one problem in Canada. There is only one solution to it—more employers—more stores, farms, corporations, factories, mines, oil fields and the rest, able to employ men and women to do the work of the world.

All sorts of schemes are devised to try to help the unemployed. They are not and cannot be satisfactory. Men want to earn their way. Besides, no country can prosper by subsidizing enforced idleness year after year.

Unemployment has a cause. Those who would like to hire men and women for useful occupations, cannot afford to do so. Housewives would like to have domestic help; farmers nearly all need or could use a hired hand to good purpose; manufacturers, the largest employers of all, would be reaching out hungrily for more manpower if they could sell their products at present prices.

The problem bothers all political parties. Yet none will face up to the cause—because to enable employers to engage more help, tax rates would have to be reasonable. Political parties have all committed themselves to such heavy social welfare spending that they are afraid to suggest lower tax rates.

Most politicians are so afraid to offend labor union leaders that they will not speak the truth about wages getting out of line with productivity.

I think the present government sees the problem and knows what the solution is. They have to face the voters, though, and they fear that the measures they should take are economically sound but politically unpopular.

In short, what is now required is statesmanship of a high order. Politicians should do what they know to be right. They should have faith that there are enough sensible Canadians who will, in due course, endorse such action.

Employers must be given a chance to grow. Today, the government takes about half of all corporate profits of major enterprises. This means there isn't enough money generated to ensure growth or encourage investment.

If tax rates were reduced, unemployment would soon cease to be our number one problem.

Medical Health Officer Cautions Public In Use Of Dieldrin

This insecticide is extremely toxic (poisonous). About 7 drops can kill an adult male.

This substance is readily absorbed through the skin, respiratory system and the gastro-intestinal tract. In view of the fact that this poison is easily available and widely used, especially by farmers for the control of grasshoppers, and as most of this substance is applied as a spray, it can be assumed that many people will be exposed to this chemical.

To avoid accidental poisoning, the following precautions should be taken:

- 1—Follow carefully all instructions on the container.
- 2—Keep away from children.
- 3—Avoid getting clothing wet with Dieldrin spray.
- 4—Avoid getting hands, arms and face contaminated while mixing insecticide or while filling spray tanks, etc.
- 5—Avoid inhaling or ingesting of the chemical.

Signs and symptoms of Dieldrin poisoning are as follows:

Eliminate Worry, Enjoy Car Trip

"There is no reason why every motorist shouldn't get the fullest enjoyment out of his vacation motor trip," claims the Canadian Highway Safety Council. "All it takes is a little preparation and some common sense."

The Council, sponsoring in Canada the annual continent-wide Slow Down and Live campaign through June, July and August in co-operation with the Association of State and Provincial Safety Co-ordinators, has issued a few tips for enjoyable motoring.

First, it advises, the car should be safety checked before leaving. Make certain brakes, horn, steering, exhaust system, glass, lights, mirrors, wipers and tires are in top travelling condition.

Then start early so any sense of rush will be either eliminated or reduced to a minimum, and stop when tired or just to enjoy the scenery.

Motorists who set tight schedules for trips produce tense nerves and muscles. A fast trip proves only one thing—that you might as well have used the time saved to get pleasure out of the trip.

Drive easily. Ignore others who insist in frantic pursuit of what they seem to think is a sense of superiority or leadership in traffic. Let them brag. There may come a day when their ego needs help.

Let the tail-gating, horn-honk-

1—Acute poisoning: Tremors, unsteady walk, excitability, irritability, followed by convulsions (usually within half to one hour) and eventually depression of the nervous system which may cause respiratory failure and death.

2—Poisoning caused by Inhalation: Abdominal pain, headache, dizziness, nausea, vomiting and diarrhoea, dark colored urine, jaundice and death due to renal failure.

First Aid treatment—emergency measures—

1—Put patient at complete rest

2—Artificial Respiration if necessary.

3—Induce vomiting.

4—Give plenty of fluid.

5—Scrub skin with soap and water to prevent further absorption of chemical.

DO NOT GIVE ANY STIMULANTS, e.g., ALCOHOL, or STRONG COFFEE, etc. —CALL THE DOCTOR.

ing driver pass. Forget the flare of temper that arises when another driver cuts into the safe space between your car and the one up ahead. He'll probably still be there when you reach your destination. Obey traffic rules. Little can be gained and disaster can be produced by sneaking in a rule or two of your own.

"Generally," advises the Council, "drive relaxed and with patience. Annoyance at other drivers is senseless. If you must be annoyed watch for some of your own driving faults and get annoyed enough to correct them."

"While you drive in traffic, the only thing you can teach other drivers is how to drive sensibly, and you teach them that by example."

Canadian History In Postage Stamps

Canada's Postage Stamps have found great favor with stamp collectors throughout the world. Two recent ones "Bicentennial of the Plains of Abraham" and "Dollard Des Ormeaux" were selected among a list of the "Best Ten" of a Stamp Collector Publication in London, England.

To supply a public demand for our newer postage stamps, the Post Office Department began in 1959, issuing a series of cards containing recent postage stamp issues.

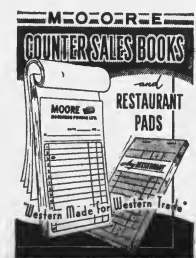

Each card contains stamps of a face value of 50 cents made up of a selection of recent issues. This costs 50 cents for a card plus an envelope in which to mail or keep it. Printed on the back of each card is a short description of the stamps and date of issue.

The first series in 1959 numbered 50,000 cards and were completely sold out. In 1960, 100,000 cards were prepared and proved just as popular.

This year, 1961, a third series has been prepared and 200,000 of these cards are being made available through most post offices.

Interested persons may inspect these "Canadian History in Postage Stamps" souvenir cards at any post office or the Postmaster will have information on them.

IN ORDER TO PUBLISH reports of meetings of various organizations, it would help if a press correspondent was appointed by each one to send in the news. It is impossible for a reporter to attend all the meetings, therefore co-operation would be appreciated, and at the same time publicity would be assured for the meetings.

Ratepayers Meet To Discuss Sewerage System

A public meeting was held on Thursday evening, June 29th by the ratepayers of Coleman to discuss a proposed sewerage system for the town of Coleman.

Mayor F. Aboussafy as chairman of the meeting, stated that the sewer system had been discussed several years ago for the downtown section but had failed at this time.

With a renewal of industry and a chance of better prosperity for the town the project was again reviewed by Council.

Engineers were called in and an estimate of the cost of such a system was undertaken.

The Council was 100 per cent in favor of the project and contrary to local rumors, are not putting on any pressure, but are putting the acceptance of the project in the hands of the ratepayers by calling a public vote to be held on Wednesday, July 5.

This is required by law before a money by-law can be enforced. By installing a sewer system it was felt that this would induce people to come and reside in the town, and also attract industry to this area, thus creating more jobs for the local people.

Dr. J. Adler of the Chinook Health Unit, stated that a sewer system was necessary in any town to destroy waste and thus insure the prevention of epidemics of serious diseases that could undermine the health of the entire community. It made for a better town as the value of property increased and it was easier to obtain money from mortgage companies to build better homes and businesses.

The people would benefit as industry would come in to use by-products of the Sulphur Plant. Thus the people will prosper and so will the town.

Mr. R. N. Briggs, of the Department of Health and Sanitary Engineering in Edmonton, consulted the Town Council on having the foresight on behalf of the town in installing a sewer system. He stated a lot of towns look at the cost of such a system rather than the benefits that may be obtained.

However, over a period of 20 to 25 years this project can be financed. Cheap money is made available to the towns by the Provincial Government and the Central Mortgage and Housing at low interest rates.

He stated several health reasons for the sewerage system:

1. Ground water pollution was reduced.
2. Germs from unsanitary septic systems was reduced.
3. Economic reasons — it would be cheaper to have sewer than to have cesspools cleaned out.
4. Property values would increase. Business men would have more incentive to move in. If no sewer system, would move on to another town.
5. Conveniences to the home-maker and food preparation would be cleaner and more sanitary.
6. All outside plumbing could be destroyed and thus alleys and back yards would be more sanitary.

Les Cosman, engineer from the firm of Underwood, McLellan and Associates of Calgary, who was responsible for drawing up the plans for the proposed system then spoke. He stated he was not there to promote the benefits of the system but to give the ratepayers an estimated cost of the system and how it could be financed by the town over a 25 year period.

The system was designed with two purposes in mind:

- 1—Most economical system so that the people could afford it.
- 2—Would be designed according to the rules and regulations of the Department of Health.

This system could be built according to three designs.

1—Sewage collection using the main sewer connections.

2—Trunk sewer consisting of a gravity system line located north of the CPR boundary terminating at a sewerage pump house.

3—Sewerage pump house lifting the sewerage up into the main and thus into the sewage disposal lagoon.

4—Sewage disposal will be in a lagoon system which is most economical and efficient as any mechanized plant. It is designed to hold six months' sewage before spillage into the river. By that time all pollution would be removed and no harmful bacteria will go into the river.

Basically the main would consist of gravity system with a small pump house in West Coleman to pump sewage up to the downtown level and a main pump house situated in East Coleman.

This system will carry only domestic waste, not surface water and run-off. Special pipe used in West Coleman made of clay tile or concrete because of bad ground seepage. Manholes would be located at intersections and about 400 feet apart.

He then explained to the meeting the financing of the system by borrowing government funds that were available and also from Central Mortgage on Housing.

A lively question and answer period followed with many advantages of the system being aired by the ratepayers.

The main question asked was how this system would be paid for. Mayor F. Aboussafy answered by stating it could be paid by three ways:

- 1—Mill rate levy.
- 2—Local Improvement Loan.
- 3—Service charge.

He went on to say that the council did not intend to levy a mill rate. This system must pay for itself by the people using it. It was decided to do it by levying a 3/4c a foot frontage on all property each year for a period of 25 years.

However, if property owners wished to pay this all at once arrangements could be made to do so. People would not be forced to look up to the mains if they did not wish to do so but the frontage of their lot abutting the sewer main the 3/4c a foot would still have to be paid. The service charge would only be paid by people using the sewer system. This was estimated to cost about $2.50 a month.

It was stated the system if approved by the vote of the ratepayers on July 5th would take six to eight months to put into operation.
